

MORE FAMILY MEMBERS

(What was your Mama's first name?)

Lucy.

(Lucy.)

Lucy Prichett. Her name is for grandma name.

(Yeah.)

My old grandma lived next to me right here.

(Well. Right up here.)

Prichett Hollow.

(Prichett Hollow.)

Sure, she didn't know me. She was ninety-one when she died.

(Well.)

She was skinny, big nose. Still walk.

(Where did they bury her?)

Right there in the--

(Right there.)

Yeah. See the roof. Right there.

(Well. Did they have tombstone for her?)

Yeah. Had pension money. They put cement right straight - laid on it.

(Yes, ma'am.)

Her tombstone.

(Well.)

This time /sentence not clear/. I guess people just get rocks and cover.

(Yeah. Nothing there now?)

Hu-huh.

(It's all gone.)

DESTRUCTION - PEOPLE PLUNDERED - THOUGHT GRANDMOTHER HAD BURIED MONEY

They rooted, digging in ground, digging round all over her place up there and hunting money. They used to have a house like this, you
