It must have been made around

```
(EAst side of Main Street, huh.)
/second female voice: That's his picture./
At the corner of Second and Illinois.
Isecond female voice:
                       That one with the--/
 (Well.)
/second female voice:
                       Beard./
 (Yeah.)
That salesman they used to call him, they used to call 'em drummers.
(Yes.)
So that's a drummer he's talking to.
(My goodness. They have, in this picture here, they have everything in the world in that store, I guess.)
They did. I'd say they do.
(There's barrels.)
/second female foice: He's blind, but didn't stop him, though.
took a load of cattle down to St. Louis. Rode in the car with 'em.
Didn't eat in the train with 'em./
(Well.)
/second female voice: And came back bringing our mother a eight-day clock./
(Well, my goodness.)
And he attended to all the business himself
(Well, isn t that a remarkable feat for anyone to do all that.)
It is.
(And such a huge store, too.)
                       He had several --/ /second female voice:
It looks lig.
(It surely does.)
It was pretty good size.
```

(About when was this picture made/