

And we went from there and went to White Oak. Well, Wolfs had a pow-wow over there.

(Well.)

Had the Green Corn dance, I believe. Must have been.

Third male voice: Yeah.

'Cause it was in the summer. (static - words not clear)

GOOD TIMES - GOING TO CHEROKEE DANCES

Third male voice: I used to go to the Cherokee dances.

(tape skip)

(The way they did in the old days.)

Had--them days had a toll bridge.

(Yeah.)

Cross the river there somewhere.

(Going by wagon, huh?)

Yeah, we went by wagon.

(Well, you got--that way the Indians got together and got to meet a lot of new people.)

Yeah.

(See lot of their old friends. Had a good time at the stomp dance.)

Third male voice: Always had something good to eat too.

(Oh yeah.)

Yeah, had plenty to eat. That's one thing the Indian always have--eat good.

(They sure did.)

All of 'em bought. All of 'em fix their own stuff.

(Yeah.)

Rolled their own corn and everything. Just roast themselves. Everybody had their own produce. Meat, why they never worried about it. Plenty
