

Well, now on the Cherokee you can go back there and hunt huckleberries.

(Well. I guess this is good huckleberry country.)

Oh, it is. Really is, I think. Fenced it off. We can't go in there.

Get'em, you know. They have signs, keep out.

(Yeah. Well, that's the way it is.)

Not a good thing to go in when you see that sign, you know.

SAD PREDICTION FOR FUTURE OF CHEROKEE NATION

(Well, just look like the old Cherokee Nation is gone, don't it?J)

Oh it is, sure is.

(How do the people that you know--how do they think about that.)

The way its been handled in the government selling off the Cherokees land?)

Well, they don't like it they say.

(Nothing they can do about that.)

Nothing they can do.

(You can't say anything.)

No. Have to wait and see what's going to happen to you that's about all.

(Yeah.)

About all you can do is find something to eat and a place to stay nowadays.)

Oh there's been trying to bring in some programs, but I notice they all been short of them funds.

(Yeah.)

Some budget.

MORE LAMENTATIONS

(How about the young people, that is, the teenagers and those just getting out of school. What outlook do they have? What are they thinking about?)

I don't think there's anything that they're thinking about. They just don't know. This younger generation that was left behind from the old
