

(What is your name?)

Annie...Annie Bigman.

(Where were you born?)

West of Mountain View...southwest of Mountain View.

(Do you remember what year that was?)

1900.

(I was wondering, when you were a little girl what kind of duties did you have to do for your family?)

Well, I helped mostly with my sisters...All my sisters all together at the house with my mother and my father, so I take care of the baby's clothes..wash their diapers in the morning and first thing in the morning I was the dishes, set table, we eat. When we get through I take away the dishes..have my tub..everything ready and I just start washing.

(What was your father's name?)

Billy Somti

(And your mother....?)

Bessi.

(And how many brothers and sister did you have?)

We just had two brother.

(What were their names?).

The little one, he deceased, his name Oscar. And the one that living, his name is George Somti. He's well known around Angdarko.

(Do you remember when you were a little girl what kind of games you liked to play?)

The only games I play is "play rags."

(Play race?)

Rags..make dolls and quilts out of them things. I don't care how hot in the sun, I sit out there with my play tent, everything, I'm sitting out there.
