

(Do you remember any stories? Did your mother and father ever tell you any children's stories when you were a little girl?)

No.

(Never did?)

They tell the stories, but the rest of the kids all be still except me..running around...running and jumping here and there. I don't catch nothing.

(When you were little what kind of a..did you live in a house?)

We live in a house. Four room house.

(Where was that?)

South...a mile south and a quartera mile south from Carnegie and a quarter west. Close to the creek.

(Could you tell me anything about your step-father..you said was Kickingbird?)

Hmmmm..((indicates yes))

(Do you know any stories about him?)

Far as I know he's a preacher. Methodist preacher. And after he retire why he got sick and died.

(You said he was a scout?)

He's a scout.

(Was that for the Army?)

Yes.

(About what time was that? How long ago?)

I do not remember that.

(What did your father do to make money? What kind of job did he have?)

He farmed.

(Farmed?)

Oh, he don't do the work himself but his son-in-law does the farm. He's a cattleman. After he passed away he left 375 head of cattle.

(Who got those?)

They divided them on us, and a man came along there, close to my dad's sister...
