

came and took and moved those cows to my pasture..plenty water...so we all agreed to that water and so they took them there and they sold them. They sold them, they got a brick house built. We never got a thing from our cows.

(There was nothing you could do about that?)

No.

(Where did you go to school when you were a young girl?)

South of Gotebo. It was a big government school there, and that's where I start school. Daddy started me to school when I was about 4 years old.

(Four years old?)

I was 4 years old.

(That's an awful little girl to be going to school.)

Yeah, he was sick then..he don't want to take care of little one so he pushed me to school.

(Did you like it there?)

Well, at first I didn't like it but later on I got used to it...I don't care.

I like it.

(How long did you stay?)

I stayed there for six years, and from there I go back to Carnegie school.

(Now what was the name of that school?)

Rainey Mountain Indian School.

(Ray?)

Rainey Mountain. South of Gotebo.

(Did you like your teachers there?)

Oh, I liked a couple of them...the rest are mean.

(Mean?)

Hummm. ((yes))

(What did they do?)

Teaches that...a word I have trouble with that I spoke...they teaches us how to
