

"And in the days, these Kings shall the God of Heaven sent up a kingdom and it shall not be left to other people, but it will break in pieces and destroy all these kingdoms. It shall stand forever."

Don't doubt that coming. I know it's coming. Now, we people, they cry when they're going to die, but the body eats up. Not to cry for the dead, the dead is better off than the living.

(That's right.)

It says, Weep not. Weep not. Solomon says, I praise the dead that's already dead more than the living that's yet alive. That shows that the dead is better off than anybody living.

(Yeah, I know that they've gone to a better place than what we've got here.)

Well, 'course they goes back to dust.

(Oh, yeah, they go back to dust.)

But in the Resurrection, you see, they'll all be resurrected.

But they'll be a new soul and new body.

(New soul and new body.)

It won't be--then it says as plain that what's done in this world will never be remembered in that world to come. You don't know nothing about what's been doen in this world.

(All of this will be passed away.)

Be passed away.

(Forgotten. No, the way things are going now in this day and age, you know, it's enough to worry a person.)

Well, there's been millions of people that have just died with heart trouble when they got sick. Goin' on kinda what they been taught.

They been taught, you know, if they don't go to heaven, they'll burn in a lake of fire and brimstone and all that kinda stuff.

Learn to believe it, you know. When they get sick, heart just fails, you see. Well, there never was anything wrong in that.
