

(Yeah.)

I would have chicken too.

(Counting chickens, sit on the hillside, think lonesome.)

Yeah, think lonesome all the time. (laughter.)

(words not clear)

(That lives over in Nowata county. Last time is Sequitchie.)

Sequitchie, yeah.

(Used to be sheriff over there.)

Big fella.

(Yeah.)

(tape skip)

This one Delaware is all he ever had trouble with.

(Well, you knew him, I guess. He knew you.)

Well, yeah, I met him. Met him over to Cowboy reunion. He was quite a nice fiddler too.

(tape skip)

NAMES OF OLD TIMERS

(He talked about some of the Indians that he has known over in that country.

The Secondines. One that--the only name he had was C. C., a Delaware.

Still living over there somewhere and the Bluejacket and the Browns, Turners, Falleafs, Washingtons.)

Yeah. There were She-shees, you know. Bill She-Shee.

(Bill She-Shee, yeah.)

I saw him--oh I say a couple of years ago. over at the Indian hispital.

Talked to him quite a while.)

(tape skip)

Big fella.

(Yeah.)
