

His wife's got to pay, through her lease money. Like you say if we borrow money, to dig a well, we have to put this forty acres up for security. And then the lease money pays the loan. All done through the office. They see you come in and they gonna give you any kind of story. Yea, they just did it anyway, and we just have to take it..