

What did you do when you was young? (laughter) By yourself somewhere.)

I done lot of things by myself but can't tell them.

(It's alright.)

I can't tell nothing that I done. (laughter)

(Was it bad?)

Might be! (laughter)

THINKS THAT EARLY DAYS WERE BETTER THAN PRESENT TIMES

(Did you like it back in those days better?)

I sure did.

(You did?)

Uh-huh. But I don't know what we would have done if we didn't get a little money.

(Yeah.)

Now, you know, we sure would have a hard time.

(Right now you get little money from Welfare?)

I get some from the Veteran.

(Oh from the Veterans?)

Uh-huh. I get a little off of Welfare, not much though.

(What do you think about days now? From what it used to be way back in your day.)

Oh, sure is different. I just don't know what to think about these days. Seem like everythings going way up, higher and higher you know. And me, I just don't know what to do. (laughter) Hardly. Things is changing you know--

(Yeah.)

But I guess it's all right. Maybe I don't have much longer to live.

(You think it's changed from better or worse?)

Well it looks like it's worse to me. Don't you?
