

(You had work to do when you come home and before you left for school. The children nowadays don't know anything about that.)

No, they just stay in bed. (Laughter)

(They stay in bed until school time. That big Akin family all live about 4 miles up that way.)

Yeah, on that next house straight on.

(Was he just a farmer?)

No.

(I wonder if he traveled around and if he worked anywhere?)

I don't think so.

(Well, he lived there all his life, I guess, didn't he? He just died right there.)

Yeah.

(What was his first name? Do you remember?)

No, that's all I know.

(End of side A--end of interview.)
