

and we went out. We went outside, and that Homer (Saddleblanket) come out, and they put up a canvas and quilt out there. I looked like a big lake lying there. And oh, I getting so weak. I told Freddie, I said, let's go home. I can't do it, I done took that medicine (after which, the myotists generally dont' drive till after lunch.) It's already morning, I said, we better go home. So I went.....Iola (Redbone) came took me to the house, she gave me her dress, put it on, took mine off. They soaked them. So we went into the house. I went in the house, laid down. I touched my nose, like this thinking it was hard. It was soft. I said, Freddie, you got to do something for me, my nose is getting soft. He said, it tickle me, he just laughed. He touched my nose, said, say, it's soft. He got up and went across and got that Old Lady to come, come and stay with me. She come stay with me. And after Freddie left, this got...pour out, just a coming down. Just pour out from my nose. Still blood. She went town, and doctor came. Goodness Gertrude (Annie's other name) how long you been bleeding? All night long. He said my pressure was going down low. You fell your pressure going down, I get so weak I couldn't even stand up. So another hour was gone. Dr. Rogers, from Carnegie. He went back down there and got them (medic ne) Told me to take two old sheets, his wife was cutting up on them. Finally they got cut, put long sticks in my nose, sticking out like that. After, I laid down and was so weak I want to sleep. I woke up, that time it came out from my ears. See, I laid down stopped it from coming out...it went through my ears. I went like that. I say Freddie, it coming out my ears. He call doctor. Doctor jump up, clean my ears good. See, you got too much in your head. And that was, ah..bein' busted in here (nose) and that's how come it was bleeding. And so, just have to get help. So he went to town, and they start working on me. Finally it stopped, and then it stopped, I never did have a nosebleed ever since.

(Did the Old Lady doctor you that time?)

She was gone. She was on Camp Creek someplace. That's how come we didn't get hold of
