

and truly I feel like I am because I believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour. And the Bible says if you have Jesus you are rich in spirit. Even if you are poor in physical you are rich in spirit. And that's greater than anything that you can have. Even though we are not rich people I try to give the next person extra comfort. And that's Jesus Christ. And I'm not saying I'm perfect. Nobody can be in this world. But let's live, I guess because my father was a preacher, sometimes I would say, "I wish I was a nun I think I could preach." But you don't have to preach to (word not clear) people. You can talk to them. Explain to them and that's all you can do. Only God knows if you mean it in your heart. And if you don't he knows that too. And after that you put up treasures in heaven and that's what I always say. We might not have money in the bank but just we have it filled up in heaven.. That's going to be the greatest thing that we've ever done. But some people don't understand because they don't try to understand. And so as I make recording right now I like to talk and I like to tell things in my young days.

INDIAN MEDICINE

And I believe in Indian medicine, Indian doctors, I believe in them. I really and truly do. But the white people if you tell them they would not understand, most of the Indians would. They don't like to talk about it. But since it's dying and fading away I like to talk about it and tell it. Some experiences that I've had. And my father told me. My father had many Indian doctor friend. He used to tell what they told him. I know one old man that he was a witch craft. I mean he could witch craft people. And he could do evil things. And he did it. He told that to my father but he had quit before he died. And it's real interesting. And my brother died from consumption. What the doctor said. But he told my father this man had witch crafted him when he was drinking water. Working at a church yard, by the
