

(Well, that would be interesting.)

I want you too see that. I'll have to hunt it. I've got so many here. I don't know which album its in.

(How big a town has White Oak been in its growth--?)

Never been any bigger than it is right now.

(Well.)

Here's an early day store. My dad sold this store to this Pope. And we went to Florida when I was just a child. And we all can't figure out who those people are.

(Well.)

That store has burned up since then.

(Yeah. Well, that's quite a while ago too.)

That's quite a while ago too. I was about 8 or 9 years old. Now I've got an old White Oak school picture in here. Its subscription school. I'll show you it. Now here's the Rock school. That's my first school.

(Yeah.)

That was up on the hill. Here's one of White Oak's first school right here.

(Now you say that the old Rock--)

It was down at that end of White Oak.

(Yeah. Rock school was up on the hill. Well.)

It burned up too. That was in Indian Territory days.

(Yeah. Subscription school.)

Give 75 cents a month for each child.

(75 cents a month.)

Here's one of my little brothers.

(Yeah.)

Here's another one. Here's cousins. Now that's really old. I found
