

removed. I don't see how (Creek).

Well, I'll say. Well, I hope you be Ok.

(I was supposed to have that done about three years ago and I never did. I just keep putting it off, putting it off. Till I think I'm going to have to go now.)

I have a neighbor and friend up the street here. Uh (speaks Creek) Get worried about her. We'd go over there and stay all night with her because she didn't want to leave him by herself.

(Speaks Creek) We just got along fine. You know.

(After the operation)

Uh-huh

(Speaks Creek)

(Speaks Creek) Well it must be (creek)

(Oh, really. That's what my mother is.)

Oh

(Speaks Creek)

You know that's something that I just can't remember. It is just so much you know about it. I don't know. I guess I just don't think about it, you know.

(Speaks Creek.) Somehow I don't understand but up till noon he'll take up for me but in the afternoon why he will just tease me, I just don't like it. Just makes fun of me.)

Well that I never could get in my head to know which one is which.

(I know all my dad's my real daddy. (speaks Creek) It's mostly ministers, that you know my dad. (speaks Creek)

Oh they couldn't stick more stick on that back that way. You know it's up and around Wewoka.

(speaks Creek)

(Uh-hum)

I didn't know that so Homer, I guess you know him.
