

(What's your name?)

My name is Mary Poafybitty.

(And where were you born?)

I was born in Ft. Sill.

(What year was that?)

It was the year of 1895.

(You said you were part Arapaho?)

Yes.

(What was your fathers name?)

My father's name was Poafybitty.

(And what tribe was he?)

He was a Comanche.

(What was your mother's name?)

My mother was half Arapaho.

(What was her name?)

Cha pee.

(Did you have any brothers and sisters?)

Uh, huh.

(How many brothers did you have?)

I had eight brothers and four of us girls. There was a dozen of us..twelve of us.

STORY OF HOW OLD WOMEN GOT THEIR CLOTHES:

(Would you tell that story again about the old ladies and the tent?)

Oh, that.

(Yes, would you? That's a good one.)

There was two old womens, there husbands had passed away..way back in years, and they didn't have no childrens or no family anyndre and the people moved