

(Where do you get peyote?)

From Texas. You have to go after it.

(Do you have to do anything special when you go and get it?)

No. Just go up there and buy it. Those Mexicans they dry it and you just buy it from them if you don't want to go out to the field, and cut it yourself. It grow just like any kind of weed you know. It's got a ...did you ever see any?)

No, I don't know what it looks like.)

There's some at the house.

(How much does it cost?)

You can buy it for about $20, $30..just any amount you want.

(How much would you get for $20?)

You might get 60 lbs. of green ones and dry ones. And it's really good medicine for--and that's the way I doctor with my own medicine.

That's what I use to doctor people with. I got faith in myself. I get them well.

(Where did peyote come from? Did the Comanches always have it?)

We always had it..way back.

HOW THE COMANCHE GOT PEYOTE:

(Are there any stories about where it came from or how the Comanches got it?)

My boys grandfather was one of the Indians that was captured by the Navajos, I guess, and then he got away from them and went on into Old Mexico. And when he was in Old Mexico, those people down there were using it. Along time you know. He stayed in Old Mexico abot ten years and fainlly when the railroad came on--those Mexicans that capture him, they died away--he was just a young man like you when he was captured by them. And then after ten years, these old people that were keeping him, they die, and finally the railroad came out and came back to the
