

I talked to this peyote just like I'm talking to you. I said, "If you not nothing--if you ain't got no power I don't want to use you anymore. If you don't get her well. You be just nothing to me." God made me in this world and he gave me this power just like--like when he was here on earth. Jesus went around blessing people and healing the sick and everything like that and I believe I got that power in my hands. I believe I could get her well. So that night we had a peyote meeting and the second night we had another one and the fourth night--the fourth night she died. She just went out. She was blue--her fingernails were blue and her lips turn blue and I told them, "Take that drum hide out." And they took it out--rinse it out--squeeze it and I said, "Give it to me." And I put it on her head like that, it was wet you know. And I fix her up like this way. (indicates that hide is pressed on her head and face.) I rub her face with it and four times I done that to her and then I sing this song that's my medicine song, but I'm not going to sing it here in this crowd because that's my song. When anybody's dying and I doctor them that's the only time I sing that song. And I'm not going to sing that song because I got it--so if anybody's dying I sing that song and I doctor that woman and then anybody they going to get well. So I said, "You all carry her and put her on my bed." And they carried her and put her on my bed and I said, "You all stay out there in the front room." And they all stayed out there--and it was pouring down rain. Everybody get out. It was raining out there and the wind was howling. So I went in there and I start doctoring her. I sing this song and I fan her and I give her that medicine--I don't know how many times--give her that medicine. And after awhile she open her eyes and said, "I'm sure thirsty." And I raised her up and I call this boy and said, "Bring me some water." And they brought some water in there and I gave her some to drink and she drink it, And she said, "I want to go in the other oom. And call this boy and said, "How
