

(Now that Lookout Mountain is that over in the Pawnee country?)

No, that's out at Golden, Colorado.

(Golden, Colorado.)

Outside of Denver. See Buffalo Bill he had a Lawsuit with Pawnee Bill.

They were combined show and Pawnee Bill almost broke Buffalo Bill. So

Buffalo Bill he retired to Denver. And then Otto Plotto owner of the Denver

Post he formed the Saul Plotto Circus. And had Buffalo Bill with him, the last year that Buffalo Bill was out on the road.

PRESENT DAY NUMBER IN OTTAWA TRIBE

(How many of your tribe are still living, Tom?)

Well, I should say there's less than six hundred.

(Well. They're pretty well scattered, too.)

Yeah, they're scattered all over the nation.

(Oh, I guess at one time though they were a large tribe.)

Yeah. There was, I guess there was about five thousand to begin with.

(Big tribe. Powerful.)

Still about two thousand in Michigan. And they have an island up there in a lake there someplace that the Ottawas live on.

(Yeah.)

And any Ottawa that's down here is allowed to go up there and live if they want to.

(Well, that's good.)

(Interruption.)

MEETING FAMOUS PEOPLE DURING CAREER

(You say that picture was taken from that wagon train movie.)

Yeah. Television movie.

(Uh-huh. Yeah. I'd like to get there.)
