

White Man (Nihi'aθa) used to go east. He came to a place where there were a lot of plums. He went and picked them. Filled up his blanket. He went on. He ran in to a big tipi. There were two bear women there. They had little children. One had a boy and a girl. One had two girls. He stopped in front of the tipi and threw the plums in there. There's an opening at the top of the tipi, you know, and that's where he threw the plums in. The kids would grab the plums. One of the bear women said, "Maybe it's your uncle, White Man." They invited him in and he had a lot of plums. They asked him where he got them, and he told them where the plums were. He said he would look after the two little babies, while they went after the plums. The babies were outside on a swing. They left the babies in the swing and he was supposed to look after them. As soon as the women were gone, he went and cut their throats, and he boiled them and left their heads in the swing. These women came back. He told them, "I went out and killed a young deer and cooked it for you." They were glad. They got it out and started eating. This little boy said, "Mama, this one taste like my little brother." She said, "Don't say that. Your uncle went and killed a little deer. The little girl said, "Mama, this taste like my little brother." She said, "Don't say that."

Then White Man, he wanted to go outside and pass water. They told him to stay in the tipi. He could do it in there. He said, "No, when I pass water it always be a river." Then he wanted to defecate. He wanted to go outside to defecate. They said, "Do it over here in the tipi." He said, "No, when I do it, it's always a mountain." Then he went out. They let him go out. He went so far and then he turn around and said, "What did I do to them bear women? I cooked their babies for them!" These bear women jump out and look in the swing and just find little heads. They start chasing him. While they were chasing him he looked back and they were getting pretty close. He said, "Let it be a sand hill, and let it be a hole in the sand hill." So it was. He went in that hole and went on through. These bear women were trying to get into the hole and chase him. He came out the other side and came around behind them and asked them what they were doing. They said, "White Man cooked our babies." See, it was him, White Man, behind them. "We're after him. He went in this hole."

He said, "Get away and let me go in there and get him." He went in there. He scratched his face and his arms all up. Just scratched himself all up and was all bloody. He came out and said, "He's mean. White Man was mean." These women said, "Well, we'll get him." They went in and as soon as they were inside he gather up grass and twigs and smoke them to death in there.
