

that do they? You still see some, but you don't see many.)

Over there south of here where it's warmer, warmer water and all that. There's plenty over there. I would say about 80 miles south. (Well, now other than the freshly killed chicken meat put on directly onto the flesh, I mean onto the wound, can you think of any other snake cures that the Indian people used? That you're allowed to tell.)

Well, there's a lot of remedies, I think. Some of 'em don't amount to nothing. So, lot of these people, they just tell you to do this and when you do it, it won't make you feel sick, without healing themselves.

(You mean there's some people that claim to practice herb medicine or conjuring? They don't really know what they're doing?)

They don't know what they're talking about. They tell you to do this and do that. It won't do no good. Some of 'em have been cured by the herb doctor, but they haven't used it. Some of 'em just say, you do this and cure you. Won't cure you on the side.

(Well, now for sugar diabetes, have you ever heard of any kind of home remedy for that? That's kind of prevalent disease among the Indian people.)

Sugar diabetes never did show up just about--oh, I would say eleven years ago. That's the first time I ever heard of sugar diabetes.

(Really? Do you think they called it something else before then?)

Must have been some other ailment that they just ache. That's the first time--

CHANGES IN DIET AFFECTED HEALTH

(Course now they just say he's diabetic or she's diabetic. Long time ago they used to say sugar diabetes. Do you think perhaps