

Yeah, they was around Fort Cookson.

(Yeah)

Back up there around Cookson and round back down through there.

(Yeah)

We had a preacher come once in awhile.

(Yeah...come through or stay here?)

No, they just--they all come by--the preacher come by and have church for those who needed to. Something like that.

(Yeah)

We didn't have no pastor all the time.

(Did they ever have a doctor live here in the Qualls community?)

Just for a short while during the '30's there was one here.

(Well)

Doc Croker

(Dr. Croker.)

He come in here from Braggs. He stayed here several years during the early 30's.

(Yeah, as far removed as you are I just wondered how the folks were-- if they got sick what they did out here, other than doctor themselves?)

Well, you see then, it was just 10 miles to Braggs.

(Yeah)

BRAGGS IN EARLY DAYS - ACTIVITIES

There was always about two doctors in Braggs. Braggs was a pretty good little town back in the 20's.

(That was your nearest railroad too, wasn't it, Braggs?)

Yeah.
