

(Yeah.)

(Tape not clear)

Arkansas now.

(Yeah.)

This land (words not clear) It's supposed (not clear) this here (not clear)

(Yeah)

Have to wait till he comes back, I guess.

(Tape not clear)

(That's sure pretty water, isn't it?)

Yeah.

FARMING AND TRAPPING

(They still have pretty had times don't they? And they don't have too much farming land anymore. It cost a whole lot to farm. Did you ever trap any fur animals when you was a young fella?)

Yeah. When they was buying the furs.

(When they was buying the furs, yeah, a long time ago.)

(Tape not clear)

Yeah. (Sentence not clear) Ten dollars a month.

(Yeah. Where do you skin out a coon?)

Well, they come out here.

(Yeah. Skin him down the middle.)

Yeah. Then make a square when you, especially when you want to (not clear)

(Yeah)

There's usually more (not clear) then they would the other fella.

(Well, how about fox? How do you skin one of them?)

Well, you have to skin their legs, you know.

(Yeah)
