

(Yeah)

Since I been around they died and buried. Move this grave, but they got another. Took the grave put it across the park. 'Cause ambulance now, you know fella carried them--funeral home come over.

(Yeah)

(Not clear) somewhere, one of them (not clear) Jesse's, some of Jesse's folks named Spence. Leonard Spence, I believe his name was (sentence not clear)

(Yeah)

But he had (not clear). That's his grave. But I never could find it.

(Not clear) sticks. Just like that over there.

(Yeah)

But you don't have no kinda place. Either a low place or a high place.

(Should be, yeah. Up in this part, Phillip, where did they have the old schools long time ago? Was Iron Post the only one?)

I guess. I don't know. There's (not clear) and there's another and that's about--That's the only one. She went to school a little while; you know.

(Yeah)

Then they had one Cave Springs. They done away with it now. (Not clear) Peggs.

(At Peggs. That was next to this one.)

Yeah.

(How about church house? Did they ever have church house up this way?)

You mean the old timers?

(Yeah, old timers.)