

he wanted for it? He said four hundred and something, both of 'em. And that was a lot then. If I'd bought it I would have made some money on it.

(Oh yeah, you could have had a nice place there.)

Yeah.

(It probably would have made a lot of money. That would. It would have been real good there. Does Redbird Levi still live up on the road there?)

I don't know. He does sometime. Sometime he's gone. I don't know.

(He's gone most of the time.)

Gone most of the time.

(He's like some of the other Indians. They travel a whole lot.)

He stays at Enid a lot of times.

(Yeah. Yeah, I never did find him home.)

No, you can't find him home.

(Well, Phillip, are a lot of the Cherokees now getting their homes fixed up like you are here?)

Yeah, supposed to be. They got their wells there. There is a lot to do

(Well, things are better now all the time, I think now if they keep on going.)

Yeah.

(Getting their houses fixed up. Getting wells and bathrooms.)

Yeah.

(That's why all of 'em should have.)

Supposed to have.
