

That's what happened. And I say they just let us Indians alone we could still be living in teepees and wearing buffalo robes.

(Right!)

Clothing and living on wild game and fish. We'd have been a lot happier.

(We would.)

Wouldn't had to pay any kind of tax. "Course we wouldn't have known what social security was. (Laughter) And this woman she just, (Laughter) and she said, "Well, coming from you you know that's the truth."

She said, "That is the real truth.", "Well," I said, "That's just what I think." But what makes me so mad when people talk about it.

Yes, look what the government did for these Indians. Give it to 'em.

Oh, yeah.

(That was all their's to begin with.)

Their's to begin with. They took it away from 'em. (Laughter) Yeah, look what they give to 'em. That's terrible. Well, is there anything else that ----

OTHER CEMETERIES IN NOWATA COUNTY

(Were there any other Delaware-Shawnee cemeteries in Nowata county besides the Wiley out on the south line that you know of?)

Well, I've heard of the Wiley cemetery.

(Half a mile north of Glen Oak. It's on the county line, but on the Nowata side.)

Uh-huh. Wiley cemetery. Is it more or less Indian, Indian cemetery?

(It's all Indian.)

All Indian.

(All Delaware.)
