

how to get ot it. And he said, "It crosses the northwest corner of this section of land." That would be--we'll call this a section.

(Yeah)

This is the section line. They call this a section line. "Well," he said, "The northwest corner of this section of land is Tomahawk creek." And, he said, "The Susan Bluejacket allotment there's 80 acres here and on this side of the section line is 80 acres over there. Then you go across the section over here, the north section. Then down about middle ways there's a 40 acre tract in there belong to her."
