

God while you're living." And that's what I'm trying to do.

Because he died a Christian man.

(He left you for a while, didn't he?)

Yeah.

(And then he came back?)

Yeah.

(I mean you mentioned he left when the kids were little.)

Well, just about a year.

(And then he came back?)

Separated a year, but he came back and I married the same man. And

I lived with him till he passed away.

(And when was that, Mrs. Hair?)

Well, that's been 25 years, I believe, or 26. Forget how many.

Cause Minnie was just a year old. How old is the baby, Alma.

Alma: 27

LOSS OF HUSBAND

Twenty-seven. It's 26 years, August 10th, it was 26 years ago when he passed away.

(But he died a Christian man. He came back and did right?)

Yes, he died a Christian man. Yeah, he told me, said, "Mama," said, "Work for God while you can." He said. And so that's what I'm trying to do. I'm trying to work for God all I can. I go to church, anywhere at church I go. And I like to go to church. I like to serve God, cause that's the only place we can get help is God. He knows I need. God knows I need. He'll fix us a way for us to find a way to find our needs.

(Well, I've heard you sing and I know you can sing just beautifully.

I heard you sing some hymns.)
