

they don't approve of that. They don't go for that, but now, it's different. I could marry my own cousin or my own aunt or my own niece. It's that way anymore; but back in the old days they don't cause your family their family, they're related in some way. They don't approve of it. There's some cactus. They're balled up. They try to get rid of them. Here's that Boy Scout camp' (about 1 mile west of Ray's house.) You see that? Somebody put that up (Boy Scout camp). The boy scouts they.. (There's a troop down there.)

Yeah, next week be another troop come in and next week another troop come in. They just do it all summer. Everet Crook ? is his name there. You can get some information from him. Camp Thomas. Boy Scout camp, Camp Thomas.

(Whose grave was that back there?)

Well, Edward ? Cook don't know about it. I know about it. I'd like to take you guys down there. Maybe we could stop back by and I'll go over and I'll show you. I know a story about that.

(Whose grave is it?)

It's one old Apache. He's half, he's paralyzed. Had the arthritis or stroke. Half his face was paralyzed. Call him (Apache name). Half face. That don't mean he's got a half face, but half his face is paralyzed. He died. They buried him over there. It's just a cave like. They just put him back up in there. For years, they used to go down there and see his bones, but now, it's no more there now. I don't know. Mr. Cook bound to make up some kind of story about that but I don't..well that's his story. But I'm going to show you where they buried him. I used to go there. Grandpa used to take me over there. I never thought, or he never thought at the time that it would come to this. But I'm a little older than Mr.
