

North Ray.

(Oh yes, North Ray. Yeah.)

It located over here in this Sequoyah Park.

(I know where that one is.)

Do you. That old graveyard there.

(That's an old one, isn't it?)

Yes it is.

(Now there was a South Ray too at one time, wasn't there?)

Yeah, somewhere. It's down in Tulsa still. It's on the railroad, I think.

(Yeah.)

(Interruption)

Just this side of Oklahoma City.

(Yeah.)

He'd get all the news.

(Well.)

Got killed, you know, and all. Peace officer. Put 'em on a round placque at the capitol--

(Interruption)

OLD HOMESITE WHERE GEORGE WAS BORN

Right on the bank of Fourteen Mile Creek right west of Gideon there about half a mile.

(Yeah.)

And old--that's where I was born. Me and one of my brothers was born in log cabin right on the bank of the creek. The step rock is still there, sand rock.

(Well.)
