

(Yeah.)

It was there.

(Way out there on the prairie?)

Yeah. Just cow-town, headquarters, you might say. They would ship in supplies there to them ranches. ship cattle out. Yeah, that's right,

"Neodsha."

(Do I remember right in saying that I had heard of a place called Flat Rock. Was there a Flat Rock store at one time?)

No, there was a school.

(Maybe, it was a school.)

There was a school they called Flat Rock.

(Yeah.)

MORE ABOUT SCHOOLS - PEOPLE LIVING IN AREA

Now, that might have been Flat Rock Valley. Now, I don't know. I don't know if they got that before. I can't remember, but there was a school built way out toward the highway.

(Un-hum.)

---way out where the highway is now. That, they called Flat Rock School.

(Un-hun.)

I imagine it was five miles from that valley, up there on the main road that I was telling you about that come down in there.

(But that Flat Rock, what we know as Flat Rock Creek, I guess it is a branch or creek. It must have figured quite prominently in those early days, because down there in Oak Cave about a mile this side is a old abandoned grave yard right by the highway. And in there is some Indian. I think the name was--it might have been "Sumatuskee.")

Salteskee?

(Salteskee.)
