

(Is it near Pleasant Hill School?)

No, it's on a different road, I believe, from Pleasant Hill. Let me see now.

I'm trying to figure Pleasant Hill. Is that out by--is Pleasant Hill out there by Ralph Chamberlain's place?

(Yes. Ralph Chamberlain used to live right across the road from---)

Yeah, well, that's--let me see now. I don't believe it's that far out.

(Well, I'll check on that, and see if I can find out about it.)

Well, now, I'm---

SAM PARK - PARK FAMILY

(Did you ever hear of George Washington Park? I'll say as near as I can tell, he was the, maybe, the father of Sam Park.)

Well, he would be down from around Chelsea then, I guess.

(In that country, yes, uh-huh.)

Well, let's see, couldn't you find it out in here?

(Well, now, yeah, I found the names, the Park names in there, but I'm trying to find his old home place. They say it's south of Vinita, the George Washington Park place.)

Well, let me see. Now, who would be likely to know that?

(I think Sam Park was---)

Well, can't you go to the county clerk's office down in--treasurer's office, and get the old original Indian plat?

(Probably so.)

Well, I know they have it--original allotments. It's--was he Indian or was he half Indian?

(No, he was Indian.)

Well, now, they originally came from---
