

(Mmmm-hmmm. And this doesn't come from me. It comes from people that know that have told me these things.)

Well, I can't imagine that. I didn't know there's something---

(You'll be surprised of what man will do in this day and age for money.)

Well, there's nothing sacred anymore.

(Well, that's the way it---)

That's what the, I mean, the (not clear).

(Uh-huh, yeah, for the--a great lot of people, there's nothing sacred. But I'm thankful though that these funerals have---)

(End of Interview--End of Tape)