

OLD GIDEON SCHOOL

(Now was it called Gideon or uh--)

It was called the Gideon School House.

(Gideon School.)

And when they built the church they had to name the church something, they called it Blue Springs.

(I see)

(Well,---)

That's what some folks called it.

(That clears that up then.)

They wanted to call it that on account of Mr. Wilson. I don't know why--I never did see Mr. Wilson. That was Sam's dad in (word not clear) day. I never--but I've seen Aunt Lou.

(Uh-huh)

I seen her--before she passed away.

SCHOOLS--EARLY DAY SETTLERS

(Did you ever look at some of the names out in there' on the monuments.

There have been a lot of people that lived in that country at one time?)

There was. But now they thinned out.

(Oh, there's very few people that fell like live in there.)

No there ain't too many, and they don't have any school there now. The kids growed up and married off and left till there uh--the last two years. I worked for school just had six kids each year.

(You might--)

Had to close it down.

(Yeah they had to close it down.)

Uh-huh.

(Well those early families out there, now, let see, there would be
