

and uh--)

Andy Taylor's folks--did you know old man Taylor?

(Yes.)

Well he's dead now.

(And uh--the Ryals, they were in that part of the country weren't they?)

Yeah, they still there, too. Some of them, most of them. The old man and old lady, they passed away, but all the others are still there.

(And the Houstons were early settlers there. And there's some Thompson's in there.)

Yeah. They uh-uh Jess Thompson he lives over in Punkin Hollow. Did you ever find it?

(Not yet, but I'm going to though.)

He lives over there. (not clear.)

(Yeah, he's got a little place over there.)

(Sentence not clear)--in that day. We just stopped and stayed awhile.

(Not clear) working on the state highway and you know there's going to be a road in through there. He said I'm going to take you in here to Roebuck's some Sunday. One Sunday we went over in there. We stopped at a gas station and got some water.

(Yeah.)

It was hot--

ACTUALLY OIL SPRINGS

(There was a place--I mean uh--actually an Oil Springs, they tell me.)

Yeah, there is.)

(Well.) (Is that close to a little community, it used to be a community of Ellerville?)

Yeah.
