

(Yeah.)

But Terry did too.

(Yeah. Uh-huh)

She wasn't over--more than thir--about thirty-five.

(Yeah, I've heard of the Harless folks all my life, I guess--)

Is that a (words not clear) or is that a rock?

(That is a rock.)

MUCH TIMBER IN EARLY DAYS--BRUSH HOGS (MACHINERY) FENCES

(Static--next sentence not too clear)

(Yeah.)

Brush hogs come in and moved all the timber. (Brush hogs means certain machinery)

(Hm-huh)

(There was a lot of timber there huh?).

There was. They just cleaned it up.

(Well.)

We had lots of timber on our place, you know. We had some pasture but

I sold it and that buy had brush hogs and course he's got this bunch of stock and he sewed it all in pasture and--

(hm)

Don't look like the same place. The house looks alright--

(Yeah.)

But the land don't.

(Well--)

He sure cleaned it up.

(Of course they got fences ever where now days--did you have fences in those early days?)

Yeah there's a lot of fence, hog-wire tight.
