

Daddy knowed. He said, "I wore my fingernails out trying to find it," after his daddy died. He (words not clear) He says he never could locate it.

(Well, uh--who was hauling that money then, was the government or--)

I don't know.

(Or somebody?)

I don't know who it was, Indians I reckon.

(Yeah.)

Its in that old pond you know.

(Yeah, and they just buried it there.)

They buried it.

(I wonder why they would bury it way out--)

I don't know. They claim its buried down on the creek somewhere there where them falls is, you know.

(Yeah.)

Cave, cave springs.

(Uh-huh).

But George said he hunted it. I know the people just hunting with these rods, you know, trying to locate it. Levi was one of them, he hunted and hunted for--trying to locate it, but he never did find it.

(And its still there I guess.)

Yeah, Levi believes in these rods, you know.

(Yeah.)

I've went with him lots of times and he said a guy I went with one--just about a month for I sold out and come out here, his names Hall.

(Hm-m-m)
