

Well they did.

(They enjoyed their neighbors.)

Just like when they have Christmas, bunch up a few of them not all of them, don't even do that, they too selfish.

(That is an unfortunate thing that people now have become so selfish, they lost the meaning of a lot things.)

We always, all us kids always meets every Christmas and every Thanksgiving we always meet together. Even since Dad and Mother been gone, we always did, we still keep it up.

(Well I think that's wonderful.)

We always every one of us.

(I don't know what people do with their time anymore, but most of them say they don't have time to go someplace, to go see about someone that's sick and even to go visit a friend.)

I know they don't. But I take time myself.

(I do, too.)

I do. I take time.

(So many of 'em don't even have time to go to church, they so busy.)

No-o-o. They got to do something. I go to church.
