

(That's the way Indians visit now--to watch television huh?)

(Answers in Creek.) (Laughter)

(I think its interesting. Since I've been doing this I have learned a lot of things. I've learned something new from you tonight, about that building little house on the grave--(talks in Creek.) Somebody was asking me why they dont that. Now I know. (Mr. Stover answer in Creek.) That sounds about right. Well, I guess there's a lot of things we could talk about, but its getting late and I enjoyed it and maybe--)

(Talks in Creek.)

(She's over at her house, reading--he was reading his Bible. I believe he's a good preacher. Good man.)

Yeah? I believe (talks in Creek.) Uh-huh. He's all time reading his Bible and my daddy used to talk to him and (Creek words)--and I guess that was on his mind when he came back from work. And I had dreamed of my daddy that night before. Every one in awhile I dream about my daddy and my mother. (Talks in Creek.)

(You know that's the way I used to hear my boys calling me. They say "Mom.")

(There is about 5 minutes of tape in Creek that has not been translated.)

(Do you go to church now?)

I ain't been to church quite awhile. I use to go all the time.

(Where's your church?)

At Norbert. (?)

(Oh, um-huh.)

(Mr. Stover is talking in Creek language, but has not been translated.)

(Not the one that's there now?)

No. (More talking in Creek that is not translated.)

(Well, Eli I guess we will go home and let you go to sleep. And I sure thank you.)

(End of tape.)
