

off down from the town.

(A man by the name of Phillip gave you land for that little place.

Well, you've seen a lot of changes come to this country in your time, haven't you?)

Yes, I guess I knew some of the Phillips. They finally moved some of them down to Spavinaw here.

OLD TOWNS - EUCHA - LYNCH - STRANG - PENSACOLA

(Yeah, there's sure been a lot of changes. You've seen a lake come in here and change everything. And you've seen another lake be developed up in there, and, of course, the government, they've taken a lot of the Grand River bottom land now, and changed all that way of living down there. And, of course, Strang and Pensacola, they used to be pretty good towns.)

Yeah, Strang, they first named it Lynch.

(Well, I didn't know that.)

Yes, Lynch post office and they had a grocery store and post office in together. And the man's name Frank Brandon was, I mean, Pierce Brandon was the owner.

(Well, I guess Strang was a good town at one time, wasn't it?)

A pretty good town.

(Boy, I'll tell you there's not much there now, is there?)

No, after Spavinaw was put in here, it seemed like after New Spavinaw was put in was made a summer resort, you know. So many more people got to come here.

(Well, Pensacola used to be a town too, and it's about gone. I guess there's maybe one store left. Old Bill Jones runs it.)
