

just come and spend some time with her that she would give us some of my grandpa's books and other stuff of my grandfather's. And --

(Well, what was your grandpa's name?)

John L. Jones.

(John L. Jones.)

Uh-huh.

(And that was -- let's see, that would be about a mile then up the road from where old Murphy is now, isn't it?)

Well, no, she's on east, top of the hill, and, then, go down almost a quarter back south.

RECALLS RUMORS OF GOLD IN LOCAL CAVES

(And there was a place of gold found in that area?)

Yeah.

(Well, there's no telling what's in that country, (not clear) before, but --.)

You see, that's why the (not clear). That's what they look for (not clear).

And they can take you to caves that they say you can go in them now and find --.

(Well, now, the Spaniards must have been in this country before the French came in.)

Well, they came in about the same time.

(Yeah, well, the first recollection I got the French came in here was in -- .)

They really came in here when they got that Louisiana Purchase.

(Well, that was in the late 18 --, I mean the 1700's.)

Yeah, well, that's when your French came in here. All right, but the Spaniards came in before then.

(Yeah, I would think so.)

And they built a fort over here by (not clear), and they stayed there for
