

(No, they didn't.)

They made it.

(They sure made it.)

There's some of them old ones down there still that knows that. Knows about it. I talk to 'em. They talk good Cherokee.

(Oh yes.)

(Irrelevant conversation)

(Yeah, I can make it fine.)

(Interruption)

OLD HISTORICAL PLACE

Places like this look for these old historical places.

(There's a straight line.)

Straight line. You're sitting right on top of it. There's some brush over there that 150 foot high. I come up here during that snow in my old car.

(I guess there been lot of people lived upon this mound in time.)

There's one of the best farms you ever seen up here now.

(Well.)

My neighbor there had got it leased.

(Yeah.)

Another boy, well, Emmet Nolan's boy owns it.

(Interruption)

(Yes sir, these old people got lots of work involved.)

Look like a million dollars in there.

(Yes sir. Piling all these rocks up for fences.)

I'll show you where Riley Johnson lives.

(Ok.)