

(Yeah.)

and that's the reason you take so many of these Cherokees, they're all Republicans. That's the reason.

(I guess so. Well, you know, there's two old Indians and they told me, Told me something that--about the same story. Each of 'em, they didn't know each other. Each of 'em pulled out a twenty dollar bill. They said, you see this man's picture? He said, the government wants us never to forget him. He's the one that caused us so much grief and sorrow. That was old Andrew Jackson on that twenty dollar bill.

POLITICS AND INDIANS

-Politics and belief. Usually just inherited, you know.

(Yeah.)

I am what I am because my daddy was and you were.

(Sure.)

But, you know, you come right down and Think about it. Fella ought to have better reason than that.

(Yeah, he should.)

Jim, let's just drive over here. Turn left right here.

(Yeah.)

MORE HISTORICAL HOME SITES AND EXPERIENCES

She's home. You go over there and we'll talk about that. They're not many old people like Jency here got a memory like she has.

(No, there isn't now. There's very few.)

'Course I remember things that she don't. I can tell her about 'em.

She said, yeah, that's the way it happened. She remembered after I tell her. (Interruption) You don't know these roads. You don't know where everybody lives and all these roads. Even if they change 'm, I still know about where I'm at.
