

(Yeah. Where was his home?)

Who?

(Floyd.)

Its--

(Chock's.)

Its right here.

(Right here.)

Raised here.

(Yeah.)

Me and Kim went to school together. I used to go with his sister. He'd ride an old horse home. He took it around the mountain there and shoot I don't know where all he'd be going. But he'd be wringing a little sweat before he'd have him tied to the gate.

(Well.)

He'd knowed when it was about time to get down there.

(Yes sir, I remember when he--his name was in the newspapers nearly every day.)

Oh yeah.

(They brought him back here and buried him, didn't they?)

So many people they couldn't do nothing with 'em at all. We was about midnight getting back over. Never saw so many people in my life.

EARLY SETTLERS IN AREA

(Well. See, besides, your daddy then, who else were the early settlers down in here?)

Dave Holden, he was a Cherokee. You ought to go down there and get that--

(I'm going to.)

He's got some old ones.

(Yeah.)
