

dresses. She went to school at Eufaula B. School. She got to third grade. She said she wished she went on to school to know enough to read the Bible. She can sign her name. She said Billie McCombs use to be a principal. Her daddy wanted to go to church and her mother said he couldn't go but he insisted so he was taken to church under church bell and he, told them that he rang the bell many a times for people to come and be saved. She said she used to ride bareback on a horse. She used to like to race on horse. That was her enjoyment, her pleasure when she was young.
