

You're going to be stiff. Says that all the time. You're afraid to walk on account of your feet, and you can't see too good. But anyhow take your cane and go out. Walk around these rooms and come back. And I told him, yeah, I walk. I get out. And when I go in there if I find a chair in there, I'm going to sit down. And I go down this way and if I find a chair, I'm going to sit down. He told me to walk. But I don't know, my foot's been bad. I had two heart attacks. That's the reason (Osage name) watches me. You have to have somebody here. But that lady went home to do her washing and get 'em on the line and she's going to be back. Will you be all right? I said, yeah I be all right. They's afraid one of them might hit me anytime. I had two and the doctor said I make it good. Sometime it just hit one time like that and they're gone. But I lived over two of 'em. I guess I'll go on.

(Mr. Maker: You know now how to go on your diet. How to take care of yourself now.)

And I can't go to excitement (Osage name). Doctor tells me not to go to excitement. My nerves are bad too. Little bit, it shocks me. It just seem like, oh, I don't know what kind. I couldn't explain it. And I couldn't explain my foot either. It gets numb right bottom of it. He said it was a nerve in there. They want that nerve to stay down there. If it comes us this way it will hit in here. And sometimes it works in here, (Osage name). Just like you feel your pulse here. How they pump. That's the way it goes--my nerve. Sometimes it gets on my side. Sometimes it gets in my back. Sometimes I can feel it in my leg. It's doing like that about two times. But I take nerve medicine to quiet my nerves down. And this doctor wanted it to stay down there. Then it could come up this way. Then in my heart, well that would have to be examined. They said she is going to take me tomorrow afternoon sometime--about 2 o'clock. No, in the morning, I guess 10 o'clock I have to go, I go to Cleveland. Since Doctor Ed went away. Dr. James he's in Enid. He's the one that saved me both times. I didn't, all at once my wind went out like, and he told Hattie, said, you have to get the ambulance and take her to the hospital. She hasn't got nothing here to use. They took me to the hospital. It was
