

You mean three hospitals?

(Ah-huh. If they would do it.)

They would do it but they just only promise one, so those people that are living Okemah they really use over to, Claremore.)

(Unidentified voice: The nearest to is Claremore.)

Ah-huh. That's where they go. That's where --

(Unidentified voice: Which is sixty or so much mile, yet.)

It is.

(Unidentified voice: One way.)

Yeah, but still it would be better for them if they would come here, too.

(Unidentified voice: What I'm getting at Elmer, is, we want to ask more.)

Ah-huh.

(Unidentified voice: What we got here, we want to ask more. Cause there is more Indian scatter all over the state, now. The eastern part of it, especially. That is why I suggested it all. That's all. If they think that is good. Some of those days they will do that.)

Some day it might be that. But right now, the money situation is, Nixon cuts the prices. The doctors. We have shortage of doctors. We can get it but we can get so much, with that it sure would help.

(Unidentified voice: It sure would help here. Pretty close around here.)

Around here -- the Chickasaws would use it too. It sure would be good.

(Unidentified voice: I know people from Eufaula certainly would come here, to the hospital you know, if they had one here.)

I know if we had one here. Where ever the people are from they can come here and use it.

(Unidentified voice: Yeah, that's alright we need one here.)

We need it. I know I sure have been, been driving to the -- the dogs are
