

No! It's not the -- They are gonna have a meeting on it. Maybe in 1970, they thought they were gonna get paid. They were told maybe in two more years. We've got a General Council, and we have our own lawyer. Rogers from Holdenville for the Seminole case, and Charlie Grounds for the Seminole case. They both are lawyers for the Seminole case. Roy St. Louis, from Washington, D.C. he was our lawyer, he was gonna speak for us until he died. Now James W. Rogers and Charlie Grounds are our lawyers, now.

(Is Terry Walker the Seminole Chief?)

Ah-huh.

/ (Does the Seminole have confidence in him?)

Some of them don't.

(Ah-huh. Is he doing a good work?)

Well, he's not. He hasn't done any improvement. But they spend a lot of money.

(Unidentified voice: On him.)

On, you know, on like we have the money, cause like I'm the Council.

That's the reason I have to be in there.

(Well, you are the Chairman of your band. They do have confidence in you don't they?)

That's the reason they --

(Unidentified voice: Appointed you.)

They appointed me. They have someone else, but they decided on me.

Even the Sanitation Dept. said that I should go to the meeting. I told them I don't even know what to do. They had staff meeting in Oklahoma City. And Indian meeting for the Osage. They even have meeting, too. The people back west they got good education not like the Seminole.
