

built their own rocket will be lost. That will be a new heaven and earth. They shall find in the Bible "new heaven and earth." Some of 'em will work on that land. The north end War will get stronger and it And here in this world will be trouble among each other. And it will quite down. They will built a Highways four lane highways in of the highway they will make you paid and they will built big four lanes highway over big large cities. And when they built good cities it will not take too long a time to go one and to the other end of the world. Many people will come from across the big water, which is Ocean will come live here. The people will be crowded here they will began to take lands from Indians. They will began to pay Taxes. They say it will began in 1972 some old Indians will not be able to pay. Some of 'em will be too old to work. And they take all lands away, same as paying Taxes. And an Indian will not get a job anywhere. Some will say he's too big to work. Some half Indian or quarter blood Indian will tried to feed them some way. But it will not go far. And the government will begin to move the Indians away. But the Chief says the promise was not to pay taxes or leave here. The grass grows and the water flows and the turtle eats strawberries. I shall not pay taxes. But he shall pay and lose everything. And he says the government will promise. Broke promise like a Broken arrow. Some Indians will let us use our biggest secret weapon. Some of them will say let us use our biggest Indian secret weapon. Which this weapon will never be used in this United States. Chief will say no. They will take old Indian out in the west world, where the grass never grows. Many will die. Many will die thirsty. They will take all Indians and then the secret will begin to use. When they move all the Indians out they way a big Army with the red coat on will be on South end of the United States on land and say I have waited time like this. Black and white will began to fight. He will walk almost across the United States. And the Indians will get hungry and thirsty. The danger cried of the Indian and it shall be cried. And the Indian secret weapon it shall come which is ten times stronger than Atomic bomb. And it will work on Ocean to Ocean. A man with red
